

COLD SEASON CROPS to plant early

COOL SEASON LETTUCE-plant in Jan, Feb or March

-start seeds in small pots inside, under lights, NO heat mats

-transplant later outside under row cover, in cold frame, in hoop house, or greenhouse

VARIETY

Black seeded Simpson-plant early spring

Salad Bowl-red or green-plant early spring

Speckled Troutback-plant early spring

Santoro butterhead-plant early spring

Salonva-red or green-plant early spring

Yugoslavia Red-plant early spring

Marvel of Four Seasons-plant early spring

Merlot-plant early spring

DAYS TO HARVEST

days to harvest-21-40

days to harvest-28-40

days to harvest-28-50

days to harvest-30-60

days to harvest-30-55

days to harvest-30-55

days to harvest-50-60

days to harvest-45-55

SPINACH-plant in Jan, Feb or March

-start seeds in small pots inside, under lights, no heat mats

-transplant outside under row cover, in cold frame, in hoop house, or greenhouse

VARIETY

Carmel-plant early spring

Escalade-plant early spring

DAYS TO HARVEST

days to harvest-25-40

days to harvest-43-50

ARUGULA--plant in Jan, Feb or March

-start seeds in small pots inside, under lights, no heat mats

-transplant outside under row cover, in cold frame, in hoop house, or greenhouse

VARIETY

Rocket-plant early spring

Tuscan-plant early spring

DAYS TO HARVEST

days to harvest-30-45

days to harvest-30

WARM SEASON LETTUCE-plant seeds in mid-May or early June-can direct seed outside grow under shade or cover with row cover to provide shade in summer

VARIETY

Teague-plant early summer

Salanova-Batavia-green or red-plant early summer

Cardinale-plant early summer

Jester-plant early summer

DAYS TO HARVEST

days to harvest-30-70

days to harvest-35-55

days to harvest-48-60

days to harvest-60

These are just a few summer lettuces you can plant here in Santa Fe.

For more varieties, google 'batavian' lettuces.